VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1867. NO. 57.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

A CAPITAL SPEECH.

General George W. Morgan made a capital speech at Cincinnati the other day, of which the following was the conclusion. It is one of the bravest Northern soldiers who speaks and thus pleads for mercy to the cosquered and peace to the country:

"But is no one to be punished? Punished! Does that question emanate from a human heart, or is it an inspiration from a fiend of hell? Punished! Why, my countrymen, never in the history of civilized warfare was such dire punishment inflicted upon a conquered people as that endured by our countrymen of the South. Towns and cities sacked and burned. Whole districts charred and desolated as if by the demon of destruction, and millions who were reared in affluence reduced by the shock of war to penury and want. But is no one to die?—Is no blood to be shed? Almighty God! No one to die! Let the five hundred thousand graves around which the melancholy cypress stands as spectral sentinels, mourning over the victims of a fallen cause, answer the hyena cry for blood. Five hundred thousand graves, the sad monuments of the error of a heroic but defeated people. Five hundred thousand Southern homes are draped in mourning for the loved ones who slumber in defeat beneath the crimson sod. Five hundred thousand Southern homes are desolate, and the night wind as it sweeps across an hundred unsaguined battle-fields, is still burdened with the groans of anguish and the sighs of despair which come from the graves of those who died in a lost and mistaken cause. Five hundred thousand Southern mothers, widows, orphans, are the living monuments of the blight of fratricidal war. And who asks for vengeance more than this? What demon in human shape cries for blood? My countrymen, the very earth is still red with brothers' blood, by brothers shed. Oh, then, let us staunch the gaping wounds of war, and check the crimson tide as it ebbs away. And our own dead heroes, what of them? The laurel blooms upon their graves—the starry banner, under which they nobly died, waves over them. Their bodies are dead, but their names and glorious deeds will live forever. They died for the Union they loved, for the flag they adored. Oh, my countrymen, let it not be said that they died in vain! But upon their tombs, to consecrate their deeds, let the temple of the Union be restored.—And let us all, Northmen and Southmen, join hands over their graves and swear that our free Constitution shall endure forever."

ANARCHY IN MEXICO.

REPORTED REIGN OF BLOOD UNDER THE JUAREZ GOVERNMENT.

[City of Mexico (Sept. 6) Correspondence of the New Orleans Picayune.]

A marvellous change has occurred in a month. People seem sick of outrage and executions. If a vote were to be taken to day in the capital it would reveal the fact that three fourths of the people are opposed to the Juarez government. But the destiny of Mexico must soon be decided. The question of "to be or not to be" cannot long remain in doubt. The impression of the leading men—civil or military—is that the present is a crisis that must develop into national permanency or non-existence. The question whether Mexico shall take her place among the nations or be blotted out is now discussed in the highest official circle, from the President down to the humblest intelligent citizen. On paper Mexico has an army now in service of 90,000 men. In view of the grave national questions and dangers it is considered impolitic to disband it. Some propose to organize anew and distribute the mass throughout the republic. The rout of the imperial armies has not disposed entirely of internal troubles. Already a division has been moved into the State of Guadalajara to suppress an insurrection there. Vega (anti-Juarez) threatens Colima with an armed force; and the State of Tamaulipas, now in part overrun by the troops of the defiant and daring Canales, is as much a separate republic as that over which Juarez presides. The army itself is split into factions and ripe for revolt. A few days since a bloody action was fought near this city, the divisions of Alvarez and Jimenez participating. The battle raged for hours, with heavy loss. It would be deemed a fabrication were I to name the number of liberal officers now actually in prison for mutiny and insubordination. It is a notable fact that some six generals and as many colonels, sentenced to be shot, have not been executed. The shooting was to have taken place two days from the date of sentence, but twenty days have elapsed and they are yet alive. An order went up to Queretaro some two weeks ago to suspend the execution. This is a very un Mexican proceeding.

SERENADE TO GOVERNOR HAIGHT OF CALIFORNIA.—The following is a speech by Governor Haight of California, in response to a serenade by his friends:

My Friends and Fellow-Citizens:—It would be vain for me to seek after words to express to you my sense of the partiality manifested by you for me during the exciting political contest just closed. So far as I am concerned, my motive has been to promote the interests of this State of my adoption, and the welfare of our common country. That my fellow-citizens have given so many proofs of their appreciation of my motives fills me with gratification and pride, and is of itself a full reward for all the labor and sacrifice of the canvass. (Applause.) I have, throughout the canvass, disclaimed the idea that any considerable portion of the interest and enthusiasm manifested by the mass of the people was due to any person or persons upon the ticket of our party. The masses of the people were deeply aroused, and achieved this remarkable revolution, because the result involved, not merely their interests as citizens and tax payers, but because it involved also certain fundamental principles of constitutional government and constitutional liberty. I am not now about to enter upon any discussion of the lessons to be drawn from the result of this election. Upon a proper occasion I will advert to these lessons, and endeavor to impress them upon the minds and hearts of the people; but this is not the time nor occasion for any extended address. I will simply say that in this result we protest against corruption and extravagance in our State affairs—against populating this fair State with a race of Asiatics—against sharing with inferior races the government of the country—against the military despotism which now exists at the South under the late acts of Congress, and this protest of ours echoing the voice of Connecticut and Kentucky will be re-echoed in thunder tones by the great central States, until the Southern States are emancipated from negro domination, and restored to their rightful places as equals and sisters in the great federal family. (Applause.) Then will the liberties of the people again be shielded by the guarantees of the Constitution, and the Union be, as it was designed to be, perpetual. In our victory we called upon all friends of good government to rejoice with us. We indulge in no unmanly exultations over our antagonists—the mass of them were as honest and patriotic in their aims as we are in ours. All of us, I trust, desire to bury the alienations and bitterness of the past, and to pledge ourselves anew to cherish, as our most priceless possession, the Federal Union and Constitution, according to the principles and in the spirit of our fathers. We have a great State here, with immeasurable resources to develop, and a glorious country from ocean to ocean, embracing the expanse of a continent, with every natural advantage a country could possess. Let us devote ourselves to the cause of pure government here, and shape our policy so as to secure peace, order, civil government, and constitutional liberty to every part of our country. (Applause.) I will not prolong these remarks further, and you must now allow me to bid you good night. (Applause.)

LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th, Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 25½ per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

For insurance in this Company apply to

Agent for State of North Carolina, Wilmington,

SEATON GALES,

"ÆTNA"

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

THE RAILROADS.

Our friend of the Goldsboro' Star attempts a reply to our articles on the Railroads. He either does not understand us or he beats the air. There is not a word in them of condemnation of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, nor a word of defence for the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, except in the matter of purchasing the State's interest in that Road, which any other Road in the State would have done, if they had been able to do so. No one admires more than we do the energy and tact displayed on the Wilmington Road, and none will rejoice more than ourselves at its success; but we desire to see all the Roads successful, and we oppose all combinations which are designed to break down or embarrass any Road, which the great interests of trade and travel and the general good of society do not positively demand. If there be any Road in the State, which is inimical to the public good, whose determined policy militates against the general interests of trade and travel, we are opposed to that Road, no matter which it is.

The schedules of all the Roads should be so framed that the transportation of the mails shall be facilitated, the accommodation of the travelling public secured, the choice of routes left to the free will of every traveller and shipper, and the general good promoted, only to the extent of the ability and safety of each Road. This the public have a right to demand of all Railroad corporations, and if any Road in North Carolina adopts a policy adverse to the accomplishment of these ends, we shall oppose it, no matter who manages it. That is our position, and our contemporary must not twist our position to mean anything else.

The Raleigh and Gaston Road has done good service to the public, and is entitled to its confidence and support; so have all the Roads, and every citizen should feel anxious for the success of all.

The above remarks apply also to the strictures of our friends of the Wilmington Journal.

HOW THEY TAKE IT.—When the first telegraphic dispatches were received, announcing the crushing defeat of Radicalism in Pennsylvania and Ohio, the little squad of Radicals in this City affected to believe that they were fabricated by the Associated Press. What motive the gentlemen connected with the Association could have in sending false telegrams, which a few days would prove to be fabrications, was not stated. It was a pitiful source of consolation.

Now that it can no longer be denied that the Democrats have gained over 60,000 votes in the two great Central States, have elected the Congressmen in every case of vacancy, have secured the Legislature in Ohio and the consequent defeat of Ben. Wade for the United States Senate, and that negro-suffrage has been repudiated by an overwhelming majority, the cry with them is "well, it will all have the effect of making Congress come down the harder on the South!" They say this, too, with a sort of satisfaction, not to say exultation. What a confession of the utter want of justice, magnanimity and principle in the Radical party. The South to be punished afresh, because the loyal people of the North have voted as they pleased! We know that the South has suffered much for the sins of others, but we do not believe that Radical blindness will go to the extent of disregarding the emphatic and indignant rebuke of the people,—the "loyal" masses of the North.

THE Register thinks, very justly, that the only way in which the ultra Radicals can undo the mischief they wrought by their late Convention, is to call another and repudiate their own action. In view of such a suggestion, it gives some excellent advice as to the composition of a new Convention:

"Not to mince matters, the whites should be equally careful, in this revolutionary period, as to the choice of their representatives. We see it stated in a Western newspaper, by a writer who signs his full name, that he was acquainted with the delegates from but two counties, (in the late Convention,) and that among them, two, a white and a black man, had been whipped at the whipping post, the one for stealing, and the other for passing counterfeit money. We are unable to say whether the statement is true or false, but it is made through a newspaper, over a signature; and countenance is given to it by an incident which transpired at Lexington, in Davidson county, last week. We allude, of course, to the bill of indictment for horse stealing which was found against a prominent delegate to the Convention who was honored by an appointment on the Executive Committee.—A revolutionary period like the present is peculiarly favorable to that sort of patriotism which Dr. Johnson declared to be "the last resource of a scoundrel."

We can furnish the Register with an additional fact. There was a delegate from Moore county in both the March and September Conventions. At the time of attending the former he was under indictment for sheep-stealing, and, between that and the time of holding the September Convention, another indictment was found against the same man for larceny! We will give his name, if it is called for.

THE Register, of this City, speaks of the results in Pennsylvania and Ohio as "Copperhead" victories. One year ago, these sixty thousand men who voted the Republican ticket were good, sound, honest Union men. This year, they are Copperheads, because they have voted against the Reconstruction policy of Congress! A curious alchemy, neighbor, by which you convert so summarily Union men into Copperheads! St. Maur is "nowhere."

ABANDON THE LEAGUES.

What is now transpiring in the country and in this State should warn every honest white or colored man, at once, to abandon the miserable secret political conclaves, yclept "Union Leagues," "Red Strings," &c. We have no doubt many honest, upright, well meaning people in this State have been betrayed into these secret Leagues, upon false pretences. During the war, it is possible that the designs of these Leagues were allowable and proper, but the use which has since been made of them, by the agency of political charlatans and demagogues, has made them a rendezvous and covering for thousands of unprincipled men, who are totally worthless and pernicious to society. Let honest men, everywhere, abandon them. Their interference in civil matters, their readiness to procure witnesses to implicate innocent men in crime who are opposed to them in politics, and the mischief they are doing, make them a stench in the nostrils of all good men. Come out from them. Get clear of the leprosy and loathsomeness which will attach to them and to every man who will give them countenance. Many are leaving these rotten conclaves, and the sooner every decent man, black or white, leaves them, the better.

HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA.—We take it that a writer in the Sentinel, over the signature of A Looker-On, is rather disposed to poke fun at Governor Swain, by ridiculing the suggestion of the press that the venerable gentleman write a history of North Carolina. Perhaps Looker-On would like the job. He evidences a remarkable development of the required genius for a certain kind of writing, popular with certain classes of persons. We trust he will undertake it. —Wilson Carolinian.

We regret to observe that our cotemporary has fallen into the error, which we find concurred in by others, that our correspondent ridiculed the suggestions of the press that Gov. Swain should write the History of North Carolina. We have no means of knowing the intention or purpose of our correspondent, other than the readers of the article have. We however feel perfectly sure, that the idea of ridiculing the proposition that Gov. Swain should write the History of the State never entered our correspondent's head. Gov. Swain has no stronger friend nor a more enthusiastic admirer any where, than the writer of that article. If it had contained a word of ungenerous remark, or ridicule of Gov. Swain, it could not have appeared in these columns.

On reading the article, we perceived, in its keen satire, a purpose to ridicule ourselves, and every body else, who had insisted upon having a History of North Carolina written by any one, when all past experience proved that the people of North Carolina never read its own Histories, much less paid for them; and we felt that the satire was much keener, when it was intimated that the thing was still more ridiculous to ask the President or a Professor of the University to write a History, when it was well known they had been in the employment of the people of the State for years, without having received due compensation. It was a well timed exhibition of the high appreciation of Gov. Swain and of the Faculty of the University, by the writer, and a scathing rebuke for the want of a proper appreciation of them on the part of the State.

ANOTHER SPECIMEN BRICK.—The Old North State makes a scathing exposure of the record of one C. S. Moring, who has just been nominated as one of the Radical candidates for the Convention in Rowan County. He was one of the Registrars, and refused to allow the Hon. Nathaniel Boyden, whose consistent Unionism no man will question, to register, threatening, if he took the registration oath, to indict him for perjury.

It turns out, upon enquiry, that Moring was one of the earliest and most bitter "rebels" of East Tennessee, and remained so until 1863, when the Federal armies occupied that country, and he left, with his family, in order to escape being thrown into the "Yankee" lines. These facts are detailed in a published letter from the Hon. John Baxter, of Knoxville.

Our friend Hanes thus pointedly calls the attention of Mr. Starbuck to this matter:

"Mr. District Attorney Starbuck's attention is called to this case. According to Mr. Baxter's letter there can be no doubt about the "intent" in this case, and Mr. Starbuck, in his late elaborate opinion, makes the whole question of perjury turn upon the "intent" of the perpetrator. Mr. Starbuck reads the Old North State and will see this. Will he do his duty? We shall see."

And we echo and re echo: "We shall see!"

INDIANA AND IOWA.—The public interest has been so concentrated upon the elections in the great States of Pennsylvania and Ohio, that we have heard but little said of Iowa and Indiana, in which elections were held on the same day. We gather some scattering returns from them from the Northern papers received last evening, by which it seems that the re actionary wave has spread over those States also. The Democrats gain very largely all over both States, though not to a sufficient extent to overcome the heavy Republican majorities of last year.

WE HAVE already announced that Dr. R. J. Powell, of the Fourth Ward, Washington City, has managed to wire-work the Radical nomination for the Convention in Richmond county, although the black Radicals are as ten to the white Radicals' one. It is well known that the inevitable Doctor has Senatorial aspirations,—commenting upon which fact the Old North State remarks that, "since the days of Dixon H. Lewis, who weighed four hundred pounds, few persons have been sent to Congress who would more completely fill a Senatorial chair than Dr. Powell."

THE TARBORO' Southerner is reliably informed "that P. T. Henry, of Bertie, denounces the policy of the recent Radical Convention at Raleigh, and approves the present Conservative movement throughout the State, convinced that it is the only policy at all calculated to restore peace and harmony to the country."

A WORD TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.

The Richmond Whig has been claimed by many Republicans to be Radical enough for their purposes. We commend the following Conservative advice it gives to the colored people, to their consideration:

"What is occurring at the North, as illustrated in the elections, shows that the reign of the extremists there is at an end. That of their imitators here has never had a beginning. We do not mean to say that the ascendancy of the Republican party at the North is to conclude abruptly—but that the leadership in that party of Wendell Phillips, Sumner, Butler, Stevens, and other like ultra and violent men, is over, and that the party will now come under the control of its more moderate and conservative members—men who will acknowledge no fellowship with the reckless and rabid pack of Southern Radicals. Conservatism in the North will ally itself with conservatism in the South, and the power thereby brought into action will be the power that will have the fate of the colored race in its keeping. We believe it will deal with them kindly and justly, but they must remember that it is an experiment that is now making of their fitness to be entrusted with the exercise of political privileges, and that in proportion as they exhibit the intelligence, independence and integrity that are requisite to a judicious and profitable use of the franchises conferred on them, will it be concluded that their participation in the affairs of government should be increased or diminished. If it be found that they have hid themselves away in the darkness of secret and oath-bound societies, and that they have sold themselves to mercenary adventurers and demagogues, whose bidding they do as in the old time they did the bidding of overseers of another sort, it cannot be expected that the experiment of their enfranchisement will be considered successful, and the whole effort thenceforward will be to curtail and restrain rather than to enlarge their exercise of political powers. Depend upon it, the true interests of the colored race demand that they shall commend themselves not to the crazy fanatics and Jacobins, whose day is over, but to that sound, moderate and conservative body of our people whose power and will are just now beginning to assert themselves, and who, when once they have assumed their legitimate control of the Government, will hold it for generations to come. As a true friend of that race, we advise them at once to cut loose from the false guides to whom too many of them have surrendered themselves; come out from the criminal and disgraceful lodges and leagues into which they have been seduced, and seek to secure the friendship and confidence of those whom they know to be men of character and sense."

CONSERVATIVES IN HALIFAX COUNTY.

The whites are largely outnumbered in the registration by the blacks of Halifax County, yet we see the gallant Conservatives of that County are not discouraged. They call a meeting to be held on the 19th. inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the State Convention. Their example is worthy of imitation. They have no idea of giving up the colored vote to the control of the Radicals. Several Counties are in the same position and we hope they will do likewise.

BEAUFORT COUNTY.—Messrs. Jno. C. Gorham and Joseph B. Stickney are announced as Conservative candidates to represent Beaufort county in the coming State Convention. Both of these gentlemen are good, reliable men, and will be elected.—The Conservative says:

"We take great pleasure in presenting these names, because we feel satisfied it is in accordance with the general sentiment and wish of the people, and because we recognize in them gentlemen of the very highest character for purity, honesty and integrity."

SETTLED.—The Sheriff of Currituck, who was one of the three mulcted at the recent term of Wake Superior Court for delinquency in rendering his taxes, has since settled with the Comptroller and Public Treasurer. As unavoidable causes probably prevented his earlier compliance with the law, we presume that steps will be taken to have the amercement removed.

CONSERVATISM.—The Wilmington Post says that "conservative means rebel." Well, its definition is a very characteristic one.—We presume that any adjective reflecting upon radicalism would, in its estimation, mean "rebel." This term, indeed, is a very expansive one under radical manipulation, and includes all the parts of speech which oppose the Post's political creed. Its irrefutable argument and "damnatory clause" is ever at hand, and are embraced in the one word, "rebel"—a distinction in which George Washington once gloried. The Post doesn't like the Raleigh Conservatives, and says "as sure as the sun shines conservative means rebel," and that opponents of radicalism, or as it calls it, republicanism, are cobras and rebels. It alludes to the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, as if these documents were in this day regarded as orthodox.—Norfolk Journal.

APT REPORT!—We were witness to an amusing passage at-arms in the street yesterday morning, between an old politician, and a gentleman, late a gallant General in the United States Army. Our old friend, the politician, in alluding to certain proposed candidates for the Convention, announced his opposition to any one who had been in the Confederate army. His antagonist, quick as thought, replied with animation, that such service was no disqualification with honorable and high-minded men. As for himself he had more respect for a gentleman who had gone into the field at the call of his country, and fought her battles gallantly, than he had for many of those who had kept out.

Our old friend looked surprised, and left, finding that he had failed to make capital in that quarter.—Washington (N. C.) Conservative.

MRS. LINCOLN'S PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Mrs. Lincoln's wardrobe, jewels, and other personal property, are still on exhibition in New York. Only a few small articles have been sold thus far, and unless Mr. Bradley is more successful this week, the goods will be sold at auction next Monday. Nearly all the auctioneers of New York have volunteered to sell the goods without any expense to Mrs. Lincoln. The rooms are constantly thronged with visitors. The calls are mostly made out of curiosity, and during the day hundreds of women handle the goods, criticising the style and the prices asked for them.

GREELEY GLORIES IN HIS SURETYSHIP FOR MR. DAVIS.—The editor of the Tribune regards the signing of that bond as one of the noblest acts of his life, and confidently trusts that most of those who now condemn him therefor will live to honor him for that act more than for any other.—N. Y. Tribune, 8th.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10, 1867.

Editors Sentinel:—I cannot attempt to give you an idea how matters stand just at the present time. Within the past two months, everything has assumed a change. The Republicans have now almost given up. They were never before so disconsolate and discouraged, and know not what course next to pursue. Confident as they were of a great Republican victory in the four great States, whose elections occurred day before yesterday, their amazement at the result can hardly be imagined. A glorious result it was for American citizens, and the oppressed of the South. The Radicals will surely repent of their folly, and henceforth I can safely predict the downfall of the Republican party.

A committee waited upon the President this morning, and were received in the kindest manner. He expressed himself quite freely on political matters, and predicted a speedy restoration of the States in the American Union. The great ultra-Radical leaders here, and the negro party generally, or mixed politicians, are completely flanked out, and are very bitter, even more so than ever, in their denunciation of the Democrats.

It is thought that Congress will not at all interfere with the Executive Department, on its re-assembling, as the voice of the people has sustained the President in his views. D.

"RED STRINGISM" IN CATAWBA COUNTY.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As your readers love their country, love liberty, and love and respect, and are willing to obey, the Constitution of our forefathers, I will give them a brief sketch of the first general meeting of the Destructives in this County, and how suddenly it came to grief.

The Red Strings, alias Union Republicans, alias U. L. A's., met in the Court House at Newton, on the 6th. inst., to consider things in general and at the same time nominate a candidate for the Convention.

The meeting came to order, by calling R. B. Houston to the Chair,—he who made such tremendous war speeches at the outset of the struggle, calling down "eternal vengeance" on the whole Yankee nation; and no one doubts, to this day, if he had had a cannon that would have thrown grape and canister to Boston, but what he would have swept the streets of that "philanthropic" old city of every vestige of Yankee humanity. To prove his patriotism, he joined the army and was elected Lieutenant, and appeared to be blest with more than an average of bravery, until an unfortunate little skirmish took place on the "Big Black" in which one man was accidentally killed. Poor fellow! his heart failed him from that day; he resigned, came home, got a doctor's certificate, certifying that he was insane, and begged to be allowed to go and live with Dr. Fisher. He afterwards ran for the Convention, in 1865, receiving 52 votes in the County.

The Secretary is a small potato from Granville County, too small to notice in this account.

A Committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions for the meeting. The following were the Committee: William Soider, (colored.) Dr. Mott, (deceased politically.) Bart Killian, (deserter.) Philip Pitts, (a nincompoop) and D. Barringer, (colored.)

The Committee retired, and Jasper Wilson (the man who tried to raise a company at the outset of the war, but failed, and afterwards, in 1865, ran as a candidate for the Legislature against Col. Robards, receiving 21 votes in the County, and as a reward of merit, was belled out of Newton,) proceeded to address the meeting (nearly all blacks except a few lookers-on for curiosity,) in the most outlandish, ridiculous and illiterate style that ever was heard in any Court room. No one that heard his remarks could gather any meaning from them, more than that he was willing to be on an equality with "Cuffee," morally and politically. He seems to be straining at a gnat and he will swallow a buck negro before Christmas.

I haven't space enough to give the resolutions. Suffice it to say that not more than fifteen men voted on the adoption of the resolutions. The negroes would not vote for them, or else they did not understand them.

Thus ended the first "panorama" of the kind ever enacted in this County. The leaders were shocked, surprised and mortified, that the people would not take interest in the great mass meeting. This they tried to make the people believe, so that they might entrap them. If some of the men in that meeting wanted to hold a meeting to form a Conservative party, why did they fuse with the Red Strings? 'Tis false!

CATAWBA CO., Oct. 8th.

BROWNLOW FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR.—The Radical papers in Tennessee are publishing fulsome editorials showing why Brownlow should be elected United States Senator, to succeed Senator Patterson.—The reasons are weighty, if not convincing. The Chattanooga Union favors his election, and its arguments are the reverse of insincere:

"Governor Brownlow is, without doubt, a curse to the State of Tennessee, but he is a political villain of such transcendent magnitude as to exort our admiration; and however much we may hate him, we cannot afford to despise him. Under any other man than Brownlow, the State of Tennessee would soon recuperate from the dejected condition into which his machinations have cast her, and we therefore rejoice exceedingly at the prospect of his election to the United States Senate. There, he will have a new field for the exhibition of his abilities. Before him, even old Ben Wade should he be re-elected, which is doubtful, would pale his ineffectual fires, while, if not re-elected, the vacancy caused by the absence of the Senator from Ohio would be more than filled by the Senator from Tennessee. While he continues Governor, no matter how great a reaction in political feeling may take place at the North, it is useless to expect any relief from the oppression which now weighs so heavily upon the State. Our only salvation is in a State Convention, and this he will not permit to be held, and would prevent it at the point of the bayonet; and in the event of such resistance to his militia the whole force of the United States would be thrown into the scale on his side. Any other man in power might listen to reason. Even Stokes would hardly dare to pursue his policy to the bitter end as Brownlow does. For this reason we are in favor of the election of William G. Brownlow to the Senate of the United States by the Legislature, which meets on the first Monday of October."

Ristori's face is enameled nightly. The followers of this fashion are, in England, Miss Burdett Coutts, and the fair lady whose husband refused to pay several thousand pounds for numberless enamelings.—The price of a permanent enameling is fifty dollars.

It skilfully done, and the cheeks touched with rouge, with a little fixing up of the eyebrows, you cannot, at night, and a foot or two off, tell an old woman from a young one.

THE RADICALS ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—The following returns (which we give as a mere specimen of the rest) show that the Radicals voted by hundreds against allowing negroes to vote in Ohio. Forney's Chronicle says:

"Sandusky county, complete, gives 621 majority, and 800 against the amendment—a Democratic gain of 450. Clarke county gives 1,200 Republican majority, and 700 for the amendment—a Democratic gain of 38. Seneca county gives about 1,000 Democratic majority, and 1,500 against the amendment—a Democratic gain of 600."

California has an election, Wednesday, October 16, (being the third Wednesday,) for a Justice of the Supreme Court, to hold office ten years; district judges, in certain districts, for four years; county judges in all the counties, for four years; justices of the peace, for two years; and a Superintendent of Public Instruction, for four years.

COUNTY MASS MEETING.

Pursuant to a call made through the Lincoln Courier, a large number of the citizens of Lincoln County met in the Court House on the 5th inst., when, on motion

M. Warlick, Esq., took the Chair and H. W. Abernethy was requested to act as Secretary.

The objects of the meeting having been stated,—in substance, to organize a Constitutional Union party in the County, and to appoint delegates to a Convention proposed to be held at Raleigh on the 16th October, inst., to organize and consolidate all the good Conservative men in the State,—on motion,

A Committee was appointed by the Chair, consisting of ten gentlemen, representing every section of the County, to prepare business for the meeting.

Committee—Dr. E. Crowell, F. M. Reinhardt, L. S. Camp, Alfred Robinson, Jacob Goodson, Daniel Finger, Monroe Burke, John Finger, John Reep and Wm. Edwards.

The Committee after proper deliberation returned and reported the following:

WHEREAS: The people of North Carolina will soon be required to hold an Election for Delegates to a Convention, for the purpose of reconstructing the State, and

WHEREAS: Said Convention will be clothed with extraordinary powers, which may vitally affect the rights of all citizens; therefore be it

1st. Resolved, That it is the duty of our people to elect a Delegate to said Convention, who shall be pledged to oppose Confiscation, directly or indirectly, and any Disfranchisement for political opinion's sake.

2d. Resolved, That we accept the "Reconstruction" measures as the speediest means of restoring to us our Civil Rights.

3d. Resolved, That we invite our fellow-citizens, both white and colored, to unite with us on these Principles, and elect a man in whose integrity and sense of justice the Rights of both races will be secured.

4th. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that there should be a thorough canvass before the people, and that it is the duty of all good men to aid in the discussion of these principles.

5th. Resolved, That the Chairman do appoint twenty Delegates to represent the people of Lincoln County in the Convention proposed to be held at Raleigh, for the purpose of harmonizing, and if possible to co-operate with those who may organize for the purpose of promoting the rights and interests of the white man as well as the colored man.

On motion, the Report of the Committee was received and passed to a vote and the preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The following, also reported by the Committee, was then taken up and fully discussed, when the question was put by the Chair, "Is the meeting prepared to vote,—those in favor of nominating a candidate will vote I, those opposed No."

This being carried in the affirmative, on motion, the main question, approving or endorsing the nomination made by the Committee, was put and unanimously adopted.

Your Committee, after agreeing, without the slightest dissension, upon the above preamble and resolutions submitted to you as a platform of your principles, beg leave to present the following:

Resolved, Regarding it highly important that the people should select for themselves, Representatives, on all occasions similar to the present, we propose that a gentleman be named by this meeting to serve as a Delegate in the State Convention, when called, under the provisions of the Congressional Reconstruction Acts, and, therefore, most respectfully suggest the nomination of William A. Graham, Jr., for that important office.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the Lincoln Courier, and that the conductors of the Press in North Carolina, favorable to this movement, are hereby requested to notice or copy them.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

M. WARLICK, Ch'm'n.

H. W. ABERNETHY, Secretary.

The following are the names of the Delegates appointed under the 5th, Resolution:

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—At the Criminal Court yesterday, in the case of Patrick White and Michael Lavalle, charged with larceny, His Honor rendered a decision on an important question which then arose for the first time in this Court. The defendants arraigned were white, and the State's witness was a colored man, a Sergeant of a company of troops on duty at the forts below. Fred. D. Poisson, Esq., appeared for White and J. L. Rhoades, Esq., for Lavalle. Upon the witness being called, Mr. Poisson arose and made his objection against hearing the testimony of this witness and its inadmissibility in our Courts. He grounded this objection upon the fact that previous to and during the war, no person of color by the laws of North Carolina was permitted to give testimony in our Courts, and that by the act of the General Assembly, at its session of 1865-'66, the law was modified only so far as to grant them the right to testify in cases where their rights and interests were concerned, and persons of color were parties to the suit; and, therefore, in this case the witness' testimony was clearly inadmissible.

Solicitor Holmes suggested that the Civil Rights bill removed all difficulty. Mr. Poisson still urged that if North Carolina is a State, as Chief Justice Chase has tacitly admitted by holding a regular term of the District Court in its limits, the laws of Congress were without authority; if, on the other hand, she is not a State, but simply a Territory, then truly has Congress the right to thus legislate for her. His Honor was appealed to as a Judge of the State of North Carolina, and one sworn to obey and execute the laws of this State, to decide that the legislation of Congress should not interfere with our State laws.

His Honor stated that this was no new question, and although the point had never been brought before this Court, it had risen and been acted upon by no less than three Superior Court Judges of this State. His Honor said that he decided with them, that wherever the laws of Congress came in conflict with our State laws, the Congressional laws shall override the latter, until the Supreme Courts have decided that they are unconstitutional.

The witness was allowed to testify and the case was "proceeded with."—Wilmington Journal, 10th.

THE ELECTIONS!

PENNSYLVANIA.

FIRST DISPATCH.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11, M.

The Age's table makes Sharswood's (Dem.) majority 5,355, and the Press (Forney) calculates Williams' majority at 660.

SECOND DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11, 9, P. M.

There is nothing, through the regular channels, or private dispatches, to change the reports forwarded at noon. Pennsylvania is regarded as absolutely certain for the Democrats.

OHIO.

FIRST DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11, 2½, P. M.

A dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, says that it will take the official returns to decide who is elected Governor.

SECOND DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11, 9, P. M.

Fresh advices from Ohio report that the official count will be necessary to decide the Governorship,—the chances slightly favoring Hayes.—The figures for the Legislature, sent yesterday, prove to be correct by closer count.

[It will be remembered that those figures give the Dems. 6 maj. in the House and 2 in the Senate.]

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11, P. M.

It is highly probable that the Cabinet, except Stanbery and Welles, will be changed. Whether before or after the New York election is uncertain. The Democrats, however, are urging an early re-organization.

In discussing the President's refusal of a serenade, last night, the National Intelligencer says: "The voices of a whole people, redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled, are joined in one great pean of thanksgiving, the grandeur of whose thunder tones mocks all petty local demonstration, however great or enthusiastic."

CONNECTICUT—CABINET—GRANT, &C.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11, P. M.

The Hartford, Connecticut, Times says:

"This is the first time in thirteen years that the Democrats have carried a majority of the towns in this State. We have gained over twenty towns this fall."

The Cabinet was in session an hour and a half to-day. All the Departments were represented.

The Baltimore American places Grant's name for President at the head of its columns.

Small lots of counterfeit treasury notes have appeared. Without a close inspection or having a copy of the genuine, it is impossible to detect the counterfeit Seven-thirties.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Oct. 11, P. M.

Gen. Imboden, late of the Confederate Army, applied to-day to register under the President's amnesty, and only taking the oath therein prescribed. He was refused.

Particulars from Norfolk County show a serious state of affairs among negro squatters. Besides resisting the U. S. officers, they have held meetings which they attend armed. At one of these meetings the chief speaker uttered the idea that the negroes were more powerful than the whites in the South, and would hold the lands they were on at all hazards.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINTER Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MEWINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals from $1 to $2.

Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost," some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And there take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

A. CREECH'S,

Sept. 12—39-tf Fayetteville Street.

"THE OLD BOOK-KEEPER."

BY GEORGE COOPER.

It was an ancient book-keeper,
And he was tall and slim,
Though his face was mild, he rarely smiled.
His clothes were dark and prim;
And everything about his desk
He kept exceeding trim.

He always hung his hat and coat
Upon the self-same hooks,
And laid his ruler, pen, and ink
In their respective nooks,
And the only exercise he had
Was footing up his books.

Each day, upon the self-same hour,
He took his lofty seat,
And bent his body and his mind
His labors to complete;
And blots were neither on his fame
Nor on his ledger sheet.

The music of his pen was heard
From morn till eventide;
Up columns vast his eyes were cast,
Then down again with pride;
Quite pleased was he, though he saw his work
Increased and multiplied.

The cash that o'er his fingers came
Each day was something grand;
And yet no scheme to beat it off,
By him was ever planned;
Although you saw with half an eye
That he wrote a "sloping" hand.

He had no wife, he made no friends,
His joys and cares were few;
And his dearest hope from day to day
Was to keep his balance true;
A good world this, if every man
The latter thing would do.

He never sighed when little ills
His way of life would cross;
And o'er the errors of his youth
He showed no vain remorse;
But sat down all that came along
To profit or to loss.

One day the creditor of all
Dropped in for his amount,
He found the old man at his post,
Though low ran nature's fount;
The books were closed and he was borne
Up to his last account.

A DAY DAWN VIEW OF A RAILROAD CAR.

Night passengers will appreciate the following admirable sketch of the interior of a car at day break:

"Long before we hear the roar of wheels we see the glimmer of a glowing light.—Brighter and broader it opens, like the Cyclopean unwinking eye it is, the head light of the train. Then the steady jar, then the mingled clank as of a thousand shaken chains, and the cars are here. "All aboard" and "all right" follow each other in rapid succession, and we are breathing the close and heavy air of a crowded dormitory.—The car lamps have gone out disgusted, the little wakefulness of the sleepers has subsided, and the dim snoring outline of cloaks and shawls, and frightened looking heads, flecked here and there, like a troubled sea, with white, compose the landscape; while over all, like pendulums, swing plethoric carpet bags slowly to and fro, and little satchels, brisk as mantle clocks, and bonnets made of nothing, dance up and down like blossoms in a rain—all timed to motion of the train.

But the dim gray turns to an old-eyed white, and the breathing bundles begin to stir; out of an egg-shaped package is hatched a woman, with locks disheveled, like Venus from the sea. A throe or two, and a rough form emerges from a cloak and shawl and shakes itself awake. A shapeless mass turns out a man bearded like a pard. A pair of boots, thrust out like a bowsprit, go out of sight as the owner comes in view.—One is soothing an irritated hat with gentle touches of his elbow; another pulling at his wilted collar. Disordered tresses are smoothed with hasty touches of the hand and crumpled sleeves persuaded into shape. One lady had learned her lesson from Grimalkin, and makes her toilet precisely like a cat.

The cold, clear light of early morning is always trying to human beauty; there are no tints to be borrowed, no softening shades to be worn; a plain, cold stare that looks one out of countenance. But in a railroad train the disorder is always appalling. Its face ever looks faded it is then; if the hair has any gray in it it is sure to show; wrinkles are read, like a signboard, afar off. If there be discontent in the heart it comes into the mouth, and everybody looks like people after a masquerade, or Richard, after he became "himself again."

A COOL HUSBAND.—There is one sensible married man in this State. He is a soldier, and was reported to have been killed, but was only a prisoner. He returned home to find that his wife had turned over a new leaf in the marriage service, and that another man occupied his seat in the chimney corner. Did he go to work slaughtering the false wife and her new husband?—Not much. He walked in and said:

"Well, old gal, how is things?"

"Putty good, Bill," said the double married woman, not taken aback greatly.

"Which do you prefer, the old or the new love?"

She hesitated for an instant, and then replied:

"I don't like to hurt your feelings, but—but—"

"Oh, spit it right out. Don't mind my feelings nor the other chap's! I won't be angry if you come down a little rough on my vanity. Count on me being amiable. I won't cut up rusty, if you should go back on me."

"I'm glad you're so thoughtful, Bill; and I acknowledge that I do like my present husband best; but if anything should happen to him, I know nobody else I would so soon join fortunes with again as you."

"That's the way to talk. I'll now bid you good bye, hoping that no accident will happen to the other fellow, and that he will live long to enjoy your delightful society. Good day."

And the careless husband traveled off, with his knapsack on his back, whistling, in cheery, clear tones. "The Girl I left behind Me."

A RARE CHANCE.

I OFFER for sale, privately, the Farm on which I reside, situated in Franklin County, about three-fourths of a mile north of the town of Louisburg.

The tract lies between the Warrenton and Halifax roads, and contains about two hundred and seventy (270) acres—some twenty-five or thirty acres being good creek low-grounds, and the balance high-land, lying well for improvement. The timber is sufficient for farm purposes. The Dwelling House is a first-rate two-storied building, near the Warrenton road, and about one mile from the Louisburg Female College, conducted by Rev. T. M. Jones, and the same distance from the Male Academy, under the management of M. S. Davis, Esq. The reputation of these schools is well established. The Out-houses are sufficient in number and condition. There is a good well near the dwelling, and a very fine spring a little further off.

For healthfulness, this place is deliberately pronounced equal to any of the summer resorts in this region of country.

I shall be pleased to show the premises to any one desiring to purchase.

COTTON GIN HORSE POWERS.

WE BEG LEAVE TO INVITE THE ATTENTION OF COTTON PLANTERS TO OUR

IMPROVED EIGHT-FEET STATIONARY POWER.

FOR

DRIVING COTTON GINS.

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hood, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable—do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully, WM. H. HOOD.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD AND NORTH CAROLINA GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

SEC. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution therein to be called under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

SEC. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

SEC. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

SEC. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

SEC. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. Men are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
